SCHEDULE

(Section 4(2))

1. The Commission consists of a chairman, a deputy chairman and not less than 7 nor more than 9 other members, all of whom shall be appointed by the Minister by instrument in writing.

2. Subject to paragraphs 4, 5 and 6, a member holds office for such period not exceeding 3 years as the Minister may direct in the instrument appointing such member, but is eligible for re-appointment.

3. The Minister may appoint, in accordance with paragraph 2, any person to act temporarily in the place of any member in case of the absence from Barbados or the inability to act of such member.

4. A member, other than the chairman, may at any time resign his office by instrument in writing addressed to the chairman, who shall forthwith cause the same to be forwarded to the Minister, and upon the date of the receipt by the chairman of such instrument ceases to be a member of the Commission unless some other date is mentioned in the instrument.

5. The chairman may at any time resign his office by instrument in writing addressed to the Minister, and upon the date of the receipt by the Minister of such instrument ceases to be chairman and a member of the Commission unless some other date is mentioned in the instrument.

6. A vacancy shall be deemed to arise in the membership of the Commission in case of

- (a) the death or resignation of a member;
- (b) the revocation by the Minister of the appointment of a member;
- (c) the absence from Barbados of a member without leave of the Minister;
- (d) the failure of a member to attend 3 consecutive meetings of the Commission, unless such failure to attend was approved by the Minister.

7. Members are eligible for such remuneration, whether by way of fees or travelling or other allowances, as the Minister may determine.

8. The names of all members of the Commission as at first constituted and every change in the membership thereof shall be published in the Official Gazette.

9. (1) The seal of the Commission shall be kept in the custody of the chairman or deputy chairman or such officer of the Commission as the Commission may approve and may be affixed to documents or instruments pursuant to a resolution of the Commission and in the presence of the chairman or deputy chairman and the secretary to the Commission.

(2) The seal of the Commission shall be authenticated by the signature of the chairman or deputy chairman and the secretary to the Commission.

(3) All documents or instruments, other than those required by law to be under seal, made by, and all decisions of, the Commission may be signified under the hand of the chairman or deputy chairman.

10. (1) The Commission shall meet at such times as may be necessary or expedient for the transaction of its business and each meeting shall be held on such days and at such times and places as the Commission determines.

(2) The chairman, or, if he is for any reason whatsoever unable to act, the deputy chairman, may at any time call a special meeting of the Commission and shall call a special meeting within 7 days of the receipt by him of a requisition for that purpose addressed to him in writing by any 3 members.

11. The chairman, or, in his absence, the deputy chairman, shall preside at all meetings of the Commission, and in the case of the absence of both the chairman and the deputy chairman, the members present and constituting a quorum may elect a temporary chairman from among their number, who shall preside at that meeting.

12. Four members of the Commission present at any meeting constitute a quorum.

13. The decisions of the Commission at any meeting shall be by a majority of votes and in the event of an equality of votes the chairman or deputy chairman presiding at the meeting has a casting vote.

14. (1) Subject to this paragraph, a member who is in any way, whether directly or indirectly, interested in a contract or proposed contract with the Commission shall declare the nature of his interest at a meeting of the Commission.

(2) In the case of such proposed contract, the declaration required by this paragraph shall be made at the meeting of the Commission at which the

by the authority of the Government of Barbados contract is first taken into consideration, or if the member was not at the date of that meeting interested in the proposed contract, at the next meeting of the Commission held after he becomes so interested, and in any case where the member becomes interested in a contract with the Commission after it is made, the declaration shall be made at the first meeting of the Commission held after the member acquires such interest or becomes so interested.

(3) For the purposes of this paragraph, a general notice given to other members by a member to the effect that he is also a member of a specified company or firm and is to be regarded as interested in any contract which may, after the date of the notice, be made with that company or firm shall be deemed to be sufficient declaration of interest in relation to any contract so made.

(4) A notice as is mentioned in sub-paragraph (3) has no effect unless it is given at a meeting of the Commission or the member concerned takes reasonable steps to secure that it is brought up and read at the next meeting of the Commission after it is given.

(5) A member shall not vote in respect of any contract or arrangement in which he is interested and, if he does so, his vote shall not be counted nor shall he be counted in the quorum present on the consideration of any such contract or arrangement.

(6) Any member who contravenes any of the provisions of this paragraph is guilty of an offence and shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine of $500.
